DE CODICIBVS COMMENTARIORVM NOTARVM TIRONIANARVM.

CODICES quibus Commentarii notarum tironianarum aut integri aut ex parte continentur hi sunt:

1. Cassellanus (K) saec. IX, omnium antiquissimus atque optimus. Descripserunt eum Koppius, Palaeograph. crit. I § 330 p. 294 sqq., Sickelius in libro Sitzungsberichte der phil.-hist. Cl. der Wiener Acad. der Wiss., tom. 38 (1861) p. 6 sqq., ego in libro a me composito Beiträge zur lateinischen Sprach- und Literaturkunde (1877) p. 182; nuper eum commemoravit Karolus Zangemeister in Novis Annalibus Heidelbergensibus, II (1892) p. 2. Acta agere nolens in his descriptionibus codicis olim Fuldensis subsisto lectorisque ad ll. ll. remitto. Hunc igitur codicem in adornanda hac Commentariorum editione pro fundamento ieci, omniumque omnino codicum notas a K codicis prima manu non exhibitas ac notarum figuras diversas in inferiorem tabularum a me compositarum partem reieci, lectionis vero discrepantiam in Adnotationibus criticis et exegeticis apposui.

2. Argentoratensis sive Pistorianus Gruteri (A) saec. IX, de quo egit Gruterus edit. I notarum Tyronis ac Senecae (1603) p. 201 sqq., Koppius I § 338 p. 300, ego in Beitr. p. 231. 252 sqq.

3. Genavensis lat. 85 (Ge) saec. IX; v. Uhlemanni commentationem in Literatur-Blatt. Beilage zum Correspondenzblatt des Königl. stenographischen Instituts zu Dresden (1878) No. 1; Beitr. p. 255; Zangemeister l. l. p. 4. De descriptionibus quibusdam vel explanationibus notarum in Ge obviis v. infra sub no. 17.

4. Gotvicensis (Go) saec. IX; cf. Sickelius l. l. p. 3 sqq. Beitr. p. †82. 191; Zangemeister l. l. p. 3. Insunt Go notae tab. 1, 1 — 102, 61 (AB — Ex[ca]ndescit).

5. Guelferbytanus (Gu), inter Aug. 9. 8 saec. IX; collectio integra est: cf. Beitr. p. 187. 199; Zangemeister l. l. p. 4. Tantum dico: Gu nequit esse apographum codicis Go: Gu enim multis locis plures exhibet notas.

6. Parisiensis 190 (*A*¹), saec. IX. Insunt:

- a) fol. 1^a — 8^b (PRAETEXTA — Re[scat]) = tab. 97, 3 — 104, 6 (IV);
- b) fol. 9^a — 24^b (PVTEOLIS — Lancr) = tab. 83, 72 — 97, 2 (III);
- c) fol. 25^a — 40^b (Acquinoctium — Pernicitas) = tab. 69, 4 — 83, 71 (II);
- d) fol. 41^a — 42^b (Caesareum — Tennis) = tab. 38, 74 — 40, 61 (I).

Per appositos numeros Romanos et hic et infra rectum indicavi foliorum ordinem: cf. Koppii l. § 339 p. 301; Beitr. p. 241.

7. Parisiensis 7493 (C) saec. X init.; Collectio fere integra est rectusque foliorum ordo servatus. nisi quod post fol. 129 unum folium continens 134 notas tab. 53, 15 — 54, 99 (pestilens — substraturium) excidit et folia 128. 129, exhibentia notas tab. 49, 43 — 53, 15 (aiunt — pestis), post folium 130 inserenda sunt; v. Beitr. p. 242.

8. Parisiensis 8777 (E), saec. X. Insunt:

- a) fol. 1^a — 39^b (<<AB>> — Adhcret) = tab. 1, 1 — 51, 12 (I); desunt tab. 51, 13 — 22;
- b) fol. 40^a — 47^b (Siricum — concinuit) = tab. 98, 46 — 107, 43 (III);
- c) fol. 48^a — 87^b (SVBTILIS — Multicuum) = tab. 51, 23 — 98, 45 (II);
- d) fol. 88^a — 95^b (concentus — Liuius) = tab. 107, 45 — 116, 94 (IV);
- e) fol. 96^a (Herodiadis — Dñs ñst ñs xp̄s) = tab. 119, 27 — 70 (V);
- f) fol. 96^b — 98 (Adam — EXPLICIUNT — MILIA) = tab. 125. 126 (VI).

cf. Ko I § 340 p. 302; Beitr. p. 243. Fuit olim, ut videtur, monasterii Corbiensis. v. Delisle, Cabinet des mss. de la Bibl. nat. II (1874) (p. 135: "... un recueil des notes tironiennes (ms. latin 8777), dont l'origine est constatée par la note tracée à la fin d'un autre exemplaire du même recueil (ms. latin 8779). Cette note, à moitié effacée, est ainsi conçue: „Vet[us]. ex[emplar] Cl. Puteani (?) v. e. ex biblioth[eca] Corb[eiensi]. nullam habet praefationem, sed scribitur ad finem (?): EXPLICIUNT NOTAE SENECAE NUMERO QUINQUE MILIA; finit vero PLATEOLA.“ L'auteur de cette note (peut-être Pierre Pithou) avait certainement en vue le ms. 8777, qui a appartenu à Cl. Dupuy, qui est dépourvu de préface et se termine par le mot PLATEOLA, suivi du titre EXPLICIUNT NOTÆ SENECAE NUMERO QUINQUE MILIA. J'en ai conclu que le ms. 8777 vient de Corbie.

9. Parisiensis 8778 (F) saec. X. Continet fol. 1^a — 93 (quosdam — platiola; Zachæus — Agar) = tab. 9, 44 — 120, 78 et tab. 127; v. Ko I § 341 p. 303; Beitr. p. 244.

10. Parisiensis 8779 (GG¹) saec. IX—X. Insunt:

fol. 1—4

I. INCIPIT DE WLGARIBUS NOTIS PROLOGUS QUOMODO PRIUS INUENTE SUNT

Uulgares Notas Ennius primus mille et centum inuenit; notarum usus erat repertus, ut quicquid pro contentione aut in iudiciis diceretur librarii scriberent conplures simul adstantes diuisis inter se partibus quod quisque uerba et quo ordine reciperet. Romae primus Tullius tyro Ciceronis libertus commentatus est notas, sed tantum praepositionum, post eum tertius uipersamnius philargius et aquila libertus mecenatis alius alias addiderunt. Deinde Seneca contractoque et aucto numero opus efficit in quinque milia. Notae autem dictae eo quod uerba uel syllabas praefixis karacteribus notent, ut ad notitiam legentium reuocent. Quas qui didicerint proprie iam notarii appellantur. Explicet Prologus de Wlgaribus Notis.

II. INCIPIT PROLOGVS DE NOTIS SENICIS ET QVALITER BEATISSIMVS GREGORIVS PAPA DICTATOS SVOS PER NOTARIORVM SCEDVLAE RECITARE CONSVEVERAT SEV ET QVOD TEMPORIBVS DAVID REGIS NOTARII FVISSE DESCRIBVNTVR, SED ET POSTEA QVOD BARVCH DISCIPVLVM HIEREMLÆ PROPHEAE NOTARIVM FVISSE ASSERVNT.

Hic quoque flagrantius odorem suauitatis demonstrat. hic flores et magnis auctoribus exagitat. O quam mira est profunditas eloquiorum Dei. quam mira dispensatio summi dei filii. libet mihi et huic intendere, uolo si possum et referre aliquid adiuuante dño. Igitur namque in quantum sibimet iam crebrius responsione uera et assidue interrogationis quae fit plerumque legenti generarent ex satietate fastidium. ego quidem dimisso capite meo pudore prohibeo. Quid igitur condempno in quibus puer lusus aliquid ex parte bene agnosco, aliquid nescio. Hoc enim per noua uestigia rursus ingredior, emendare uolui, si potuissem, hoc etiam apices litterarum. infans eram necdum stilo ferreo in articulis meis non eram usus ad sua utilitate commoveri. Titubat manus, tremunt articuli. meo nunc nomine ea quae sponderam lingua mea crebrius ingerente ab ea quae ad utilitatem pertinet de hac arte agnosco qualis sit eius affectus. hoc ea quae sponderam opus uarieturum aduixa syllaba ut ordine ipso magis clarent et quasi per species et sub nomine tullij lectione hac designo. Libet opifices uniuscuiusque claritatem conatus nectere. Adhuc me in prolixitate seriem consonantem, adhuc crebrius ingerentem. coepi memetipsum multo sudore perstringere. Sed cum sciente adhuc me in profundis pelagi fluctibus mergi. Ipso adiuuante ubi manet pietas uentoque uelocissimo gubernatore quae digestum usque ad portum perduxit. Iamque iter coepi aliorum uestigia sequi. hoc signum magnum laudis creatori. quod suo populo magnum dedit auctorem. Bona quoque memoria Gregorius Papa dictatos suos semper per notariorum scedolae recitare consuevit. Unde satis miror. ó uos turnacenses qui dicitis quod prius in ipso loco fuisse notas compositas. quomodo potest hoc esse. Nonne a temporibus dauid iam tunc temporis notarij fuisse describuntur. Et postea quando hieremiam Prophetam retrusum fuisse legimus in domum carceris a sedechia rege Iuda. Ibiq̄ reperitur in ipsius uolumine quod baruch discipulus eius ex ore ipsius prophetae hieremiae per notariorum scedole multa excepit et ideo notarius fuisse a plurimis asseritur. Unde obsecro uos ut non contra me insanire uideamini. sed auctoritate noui ac ueteris testamenti obseruate. Unde ergo multi sunt qui incipiunt et uolunt discere notas sed paucorum est gratia conferta. Videtur etenim mihi ars ista similitudinem tenere salicis iuxta aquas positam ut quomodo rami eius omni fructu siluarum conligare atque constringere possunt. Ita etiam ars ista omnem auctoritatem noui ac ueteris testamenti siue orthodoxorum patrum omnemque erudimentum fidei uelocissimae ualde excipere potest. Nos quoque patere morsibus prauorum et simulantia atque inuidia et luore quod consentire non uolunt, despiciunt. Sciens ergo et prudens in flammam mitto manum. et nihilominus qui artem istam bene et recte agnoscent, quanto plus amant, tanto magis diligentius et audius inquirunt. Ut pro obtrectatione presenti qua me indesinenter aemuli laniant, hoc multi refutant mea, sed satis quam plurimi sunt qui in hac arte non se constringunt, sed sunt quod graeci ΤΡΜΥΝΤ dicunt, ut puta aliquos plus odire quam amare, qui de ea ualde triumphare potuerint, et postea semper gaudere et laetari. Discant igitur obtrectatores mei recipere quod inantea in sublimitate receperunt et interpretatione quoque mea nequaquam despiciant sequitur. discant obtrectatores mei recipere quod inantea reuocabuntur. Cumque iam ad hanc artem aliqui conuolare se uiderint et initiauerit praecceptor quod ars ista sibi initium sumit ↘ AB. aliqui contristant eo quod timent, alij gaudent eo quod amant. sed cum iam ad medietatem se conscendere uiderint, tunc qui prius contristabantur gaudent, sicut dicitur. Non laudatur initium sed finis. sunt igitur aliqui qui dimittunt ad tertiam partem, aliqui tamen ad medietatem et sunt plurimi qui non dimittunt nisi ubi in fine dicitur PLATEOLA. Et cum iam adiuuante domino xpo remeauerint ad portum, tunc iam indesinenter uolunt dimittere quod per totum anni spacium laborare uisi sunt. bene haec deante initium sumit eo quod nota aspiratio creditur. Ideo non adnumeratur ipsa cum litteris eo quod dicitur nota ut homo quomodo littera ut mihi quae ut duabus syllabis significare uidetur. Recte duabus syllabis quae typum tenet in illius persona qui eas composuit demonstrat. cum hoc industrius expressum. Nihil sapientia melius, nihil prudentia dulcius, nihil scientia suauius. obtrectant mihi homines plurimi qui artem istam non agnoscent et qualis sit eius effectus nesciunt. Sustineamus etenim malis ut perfecti fieri possimus. Nihil enim mihi nocet aliorum lingua si mea non maculat conscientia.

Cuius licet novissima Amstelodamensis editio (a. 1707) (NOTAE TIRONIS AC SENECAE) in ceteris magni sit aestimanda, in notarum tamen collectione priores editiones multo ei praestare censemus. In hac enim notae immixtae atque in angustius spatium contractae sunt, quo commodius acri incidantur, unde minus distinctae comparent. De duobus Commentariolis anonymis a Bonaventura Vulcanio editis deque Vulcanii codice commentariorum notarum tironianarum disputavi in Ricardi Pickii Monatsschrift, IV p. 578 sqq.

Omnes hi codices KA GeGo GuA¹CEFGG' HLL¹LoV GrBVu, ut recte contendit Zangemeister, ex archetypo primordiis aevi Karolini conscripto provenerunt. Sed pro distinctione aut sex aut septem commentariorum et pro diversa capitulorum circumscriptione quinque classes horum codicum dispertiendae sunt.

Quarum prima complectitur KA Gu; secunda L¹VGG'Gr; tertia GoAEH; quarta FVu; quinta GeLoCB; de singulis rerum rationibus v. Beitr. p. 198, 281 sqq. et Pickii Monatsschrift IV p. 584.

II.

DE ORIGINE ET COMPOSITIONE COMMENTARIORVM
NOTARVM TIRONIANARVM.

K codicem in adornanda hac editione secutus VI commentarios notarum exhibui itemque singula commentariorum capitula ex K enotavi. Quarum circumscriptionum et subdivisionum quatenus differentiae in reliquis codicibus obviae sint, singillatim in libro a me conscripto Beitr. pp. 199. 220. 251 sqq. et in adnotationibus criticis et exegeticis huius editionis suis locis indicavi neque attinet hic repetere. Totam autem notarum collectionem non solum primo paene obtutu conspicuum, sed etiam expresso ac fide digno testimonio traditum est diversis temporibus exortam esse: Vulgares notas, scribit Suetonius (cf. ed. Reiffersch. p. 135), *Ennius) primus mille et centum invenit. notarum usus erat, ut quidquid pro contione aut in iudiciis diceretur librarii scriberent simul astantes divisim inter se partibus quot quisque verba et quo ordine exciperet. Romae primus Tullius Tiro Ciceronis libertus commentatus est notas sed tantum praepositionum. post eum Vipsanius Philargyrus et Aquila libertus Maecenatis alias addiderunt. denique Seneca contracto omnium digesto et aucto numero opus effecit in quinque milia.

Ex his verbis ea, quae ad Ennium pertinent, si strictius interpretari licet, concludi posse videtur Rudinum vatem domesticae vel Graecae tachygraphiae iam peritum (cf. Deecke, Mus. Rhen. 36 (1881) p. 577), MC signa tachygraphica excogitavisse, antequam anno 204 a. Chr. e Sardinia Romam a Catone deduceretur. Romae enim legimus primum Tironem notas sive commentum sive commentatum esse (ntrumque ad idem redit; nempe notarum commenta commentario illustravisse Tiro putandus est), 'sed tantum praepositionum'. Quod auctarium a Tirone factum res ipsa flagitat, ut pertinuisse credamus non solum ad sex illas praepositiones 'loquellares' quae sunt an con di dis re se, itemque ad 'casuales' ad ante cet., verum etiam ad permulta vocabula composita, substantiva dico, adiectiva, verba, adverbia, quibus aut loquellares illae aut casuales praepositiones sunt praefixae. Vnde facile aestimari potest, quantus re vera notarum numerus Tirone auctore Enniano illis MC inventis succreverit. V. Beitr. p. 213. Ennius) igitur et Tironem veros fundatores et primos inventores harum fuisse notarum hodieque eo magis concredo, quod, ut dudum Beitr. p. 212 iam dixi, cum horum duovirorum aetatibus et \downarrow litterae tironianae $\delta\zeta\upsilon\gamma\omega\nu\delta\tau\eta\varsigma$ et Y elementi inter notas absentia concinit; praeterea Ciceronis et Caesaris tempus redolent et notae Quousque tandem abutere, Catilina, patientia nostra (tab. 39, 66), stipulatione Aquiliana, stipulatione Aquiliana subnexa (tab. 67, 33. 34) et permulta eorum nominum, quae tab. 114, 63 — 119, 10 congesta leguntur, velut Atticus, Ambiorix, Cato, Cicero cet.; neque improbabiler Zangemeister l. l. p. 34 coniecit, fortasse non casu factum esse ut geographicorum illorum nominum series in tab. 88, 72 incipiat a nota PVTEOLI, apud quam urbem, Hieronymo teste (chronic. a. 2013), Tiro degit: M. Tullius Tiro, Ciceronis libertus, qui primus notas commentus est, in Puteolano praedio usque ad centesimum annum consenscit. Tironis autem aetate Plutarchi verba (Cat. 23): ... τότε πρότον εἰς ἕχρος τι καταστῆναι λέγουσιν, satis indicant imperfectam fuisse notis excipiendi artem. Itaque Ennii Tironisque vestigia secuti Vipsanius Philargyrus sive Philargyrius, Agrippae libertus, et Aquila, Maecenatis libertus, alius alias notas addiderunt laterculis a duoviris illis confectis. Denique Seneca, ut ego contendi (v. Beitr. p. 192. 233) atque contendo, philosophus († 65 p. Chr.), contractu omnium notarum digestuque et aucto numero opus complectens quinque milia notarum suo quidem tempore ad finem quendam perduxit. Singillatim hodie distingui nequit, quaenam notae his viris adtribuendae sint; at sagacissime cognovit recteque contendit Zangemeister l. l. p. 31 laterculum illum geographicum qui est a tab. 86, 80 ad tab. 87, 80 (Aedius — Obsedatus campester) enumerans trium Galliarum gentes et locos principales primis Imperatorum Romanorum temporibus confectum esse, medio autem aevo, intra V et IX saeculum multifariam auctum atque mutatum. Redeunt fortasse, quoad originem, ad Philargyrum, Aquilam, Senecam permultae notae commentariorum non interpolatae, repraesentantes usitatissima vocabula, quae et quatenus neque ab Ennio neque a Tirone iam exhibita erant, substantiva dico, adiectiva, verba, adverbia, veluti aut integri aut ex parte illi laterculi qui pertinent ad Romam, Romulum, Remum, populum plebemque Romanam (tab. 23, 83 — 99: ROMA — de plebe Romana), ad cognationis gradus (33, 21 — 57: pater — noverealis), ad honores (36, 28 — 37, 14: PVRPVRRA — excandescit; 57, 47 — 54: curio — centumviralis); ad rem militarem (45, 27 — 46, 17: exercitus — tropaeophorum); 'ad urbem, orbem (52, 87 — 53, 3: urbs — orbis totus terrarum); ad res sacrales (55, 16 — 28: sacer — pontifex maximus; 55, 62 — 56, 4: flamen — antistes); ad mythologiam (58, 48 — 56: dii immortales — per deos deusque; ibid. 71: Libitina; ibid. 90 — 59, 16:

*) Cur poeta, non posterior Ennius hic intellegendus sit exposui Beitr. p. 211 sqq.; aliter nuper iudicavit Froehde in Fleckeseni Ann. suppl. XVIII p. 594 (1892).

) Immerito, opinor, Ludovicus Traube (v. Commentat. Woelfflin. p. 201) soli Tirone primam notarum tachygraphicarum inventionem vindicat. Vnde tandem sive apud Isidorum sive in K certa haec atque distincta Ennii memoria?

Imperatorum autem seriem (38, 62 — 39, 31) pertinentem ab imperatore Caesare ad divum Antoninum nemo non videt sub M. Aurelio Antonino philosopho collectioni insertam esse. Koppius iam scripsit I § 44 p. 39: Inter eos, qui notus congessere, quemdam sub Antonino Pio, medio igitur saeculo secundo, vixisse, continua imperatorum Romanorum ab Augusto usque ad Antoninum series, collectioni (64) inserta, satis docet: id quod ante nos alii iam viderunt. Recte idem adiecit: Sed praeter hunc alios etiam ejusdem operi congerendi fuisse auctores constat, tum quod plura ei insint Antonini aetate recentiora, tum quod unum idemque vocabulum diverso saepius modo notatur cet. Merito autem Zangemeister l. l. p. 35 coniecit post hanc Imperatorum seriem antiquis quidem temporibus nullum additamentum ad notarum collectionem accessisse. Etenim nullus post M. Aurelium Antoninum notatur Imperator. Insequentibus deinde temporibus i. e. et ante Constantinum et post eum notarum Συναγωγή valde adaucta est. *) Accuratius ut cum Zangemeistero l. l. rem definiam atque circumscribam, saeculo tertio sanctus Cyprianus († 258) notarum collectioni multa vocabula adiecit Christianorum usibus necessaria, v. Beitr. pp. 195. 226. Fortasse ei debentur antiquiores quidam laterculi antiquioribus collectionis partibus inserti, velut tab. 55, 29 — 55: episcopus — diabobus, vel tab. 60, 14 — 44: apostolus — fossarius, quibus non solum concedendum erit, sed in propatulo est complures notas intersertas esse demum posterioribus temporibus; Alarix, Alamannus, Francus (tabb. 115, 17. 20; 116, 33), agentem in rebus (28, 85) notarum origo, item titulorum series (59, 58 — 83: vir sublimen — amplissimorum virorum) ad quartum quintumve p. Chr. saeculum videntur pertinere: paucae notae originitus quinto, sexto, septimo saeculis tribuendae sunt, longe autem plurimae, ut tabb. 119 — 129 indicant, Karolinorum aetati, post cuius decursum notae tironianae desitae sunt adhiberi.

Totam autem Collectionem si respicimus, sicut in conquaternatis capitulis sive in tetradibus capitum notarum Bernensium iam monstravi Panstenogr. I p. 201, eodem modo apparet in permultis commentariorum partibus hanc legem valere collocandi ordinandique notas, ut eae voces inter se congregentur, quae aut etymologia re vera inter se cognatae sunt, aut notariis cognatae esse videbantur, aut quae symphonia quadam sive concentu aut synonymia coniunctae sunt aut sua significatione ad idem rerum, actionum, proprietatum sive idiomatum genus pertinent aut spontanea quadam idearum consociatione venire in mentem solent.

De scribendi modo in notis adhibito deque explicandis notarum figuris et partibus alio tempore disseram in Lexico tironiano post Koppium denuo a me condendo. Vnum iam hoc loco adiciendum videtur. Nuper assertum esse video, tironianam scripturam non ex maiusculis litteris (ut ego contendi), sed ex cursiva Romanorum scriptura originem traxisse. At cursiva illa nome et ipsa per multiplices variosque gradus modosque ex maiuscula litteratura provenit? Satis habeo ea hic repetere quae dixi in oratione de Romanorum tachygraphia ad conventum philologorum Treverensem a. 1879 habita: Zum Zwecke der Schnellschrift war es aber nöthig, dass die grossen Buchstaben nicht vollständig blieben, sondern verändert und vereinfacht wurden. Ich veranschauliche Ihnen diese Modificationen an einigen Beispielen:

Λ oder / oder \ oder b = A: 3 oder 3 oder ∪ oder mit Verbindungslinien 3, 3' = B: ∩ = D: √ = E; Λ oder / = F; < = K; ¶ = T; ~ = R; ∞ = M u. s. w.

Concedendum est ad ch aspiratam tachygraphice exarandam e Graecorum alphabeto X litteram sive integram sive ex parte (\ /) a notariis ascitam esse: v. Ko I §§ 145. 146 p. 122. 123. II 409.
